

- # ZOX TENETS

We are Zinesters of Oxford (and surrounding areas) aka ZOXI comprised of a diverse group of lovers of all kinds of zines 'n' things.

- Hang! We aim to meet regularly to talk, share, and create zines and other d.i.y. published matter
- Fest! We will plan an annual large festival of zines from near and far
- Community! We aim to create a venue to get to know people in our area

Simply put, it's a mini-magazine containing subject matter you are passionate about!

a quick and largely inaccurate timeline

when laying it out, keep in mind the order:

Have a pc/mac and printer? great! lay it out there then print, fold, cut, and repeat!

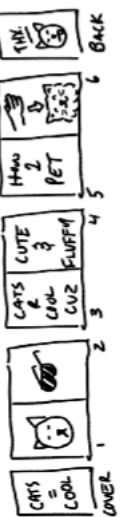

No? Contact your local library -OR- go OLD SCHOOL with pen, paper, and scissors. It's all you really need!

It all comes back to what you're passionate about!

- Tell your story
- Share that recipe
- Teach others a skill
- Spread facts to inform
- Create beautiful works of art
- Draw awesome comics
- Try collaborating!

There are MANY ways to create a zine, but let's start easy with a one-sided 8-page zine you can make right now!

Come up with your subject, then create a quick 'n' dirty mock up fold 'n' cut
